Emphasis: Animal and Dairy Science
Skills & Career Competencies [SCC]: Learning Outcome [LO] #4
Semester/Course: Fall 2019: ADVS 1100: Introduction to Animal Science
Artifact: Class Online Discussions

The Class Online Discussions are holistically an assessment of SCC LO #4. This assessment measures student's ability to use a computer for written work, presentations, and research by having students use their computers throughout the course to examine, research, analyze, and critique principles of animal science and present this work to their peers through the online modules.

4. Use a computer for written work, presentations, and research.

Discussions

You will participate in weekly Discussions in Canvas where you can ask questions or makes comments about the course content. In order to earn full Discussion Points, you must post a primary comment, relevant to course material, by Wednesday at midnight and another one by Friday's deadline each week. The purpose of the discussions is to foster interaction between students and expound on certain topics. The instructor will follow the discussion throughout the week and comment when needed. It is highly recommended that you read the instructors comments on the Discussion board (and whatever inspired them) before you take the quiz.
