

USU Master of Dietetics Administration Application Checklist

(Updated May 2023)

To be considered for the Utah State University Master of Dietetics Administration (USU MDA), you must submit your application through DICAS (Dietetics Inclusive Centralized Application Service). Comprehensive instructions for how to submit a complete application by the due dates below are available online.

APPLICATION DEADLINES:

Priority Enrollment – January 15, 2024

Open Enrollment – February 15, 2024

Before Starting Your Application

☐ ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Review admission criteria and reach out to USU MDA Program Director with any questions about eligibility.
- If you are not completing an accredited DPD program, you must schedule a meeting with the
- International students are required to submit TOEFL or IELTS scores.

☐ TRAINING LOCATION & FINDING PRECEPTORS

- Read through guidance on determining where you will train and how to contact preceptors.
- Ask preceptors to complete the online preceptor paperwork form.

DICAS Application

☐ ONLINE DICAS APPLICATION

- Comprehensive instructions for the application are available on the USU MDA website.
- Complete the online DICAS application. <https://dicas.liaisoncas.com/>
- The USU MDA has specific requirements for the DICAS application. Refer to the website or DICAS portal for comprehensive instructions on submission requirements.
 - If you are completing an accredited DPD program, you must submit information regarding the issuance of your verification statement.
- All application sections must be complete for consideration.
- The USU MDA has additional questions that should be addressed in the personal statement. See the website for specific instructions.

☐ USU MDA SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS (VERY IMPORTANT!)

- Submit the Rotation Summary Form in the documents section of the DICAS application.
- Download the Rotation Summary Form from the USU MDA website.

Contact the USU MDA with questions