Student Nutrition Access Center

December 2021

"The mission of Student Nutrition Access Center (SNAC) is to assist any Aggie who experiences difficulty accessing nutritious food and personal care products. Patrons may receive assistance once per week, as needed, no questions asked." -usu.edu/financial-support

While illustrating the impact that SNAC has had on students at Utah State University, it is important to note when the COVID-19 pandemic may have altered the outreach of the organization. Due to academic courses transitioning to an online format on March 18, 2020 and largely remained in effect through the 2020-2021 school year, a smaller percentage of students remaining on or near campus. Understandably, the number of accessible students that SNAC could help may have been impacted. These time periods are highlighted in red on the visualizations.

Over the last 5 years, SNAC has experienced a total of 37,683 visits, assisted 18,859 unique students, and recovered more than NA pounds of donated food.
